For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions. To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders, Violent cramps in Consumptions, the stomach and back, Lowness of spirits, Indigestion, Loss of appetite, Melancholy, Impurity of blood, Gout in the stomach, Hysterical affection, Pains in the limbs and debility, Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lambo, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature's weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

PROVIDENCE, NO. III.

Yet why down lacy in such depths The bounds of man, nor blame them as Return, presumptuous rover, and confess
The bounds of man, nor blame them as

The splendid arches and the costly columns, the ornaments and the various other workmanship of a magnificent temple, presented en masse but perfect in their several parts to the eye of a beholder, perhaps, by their grandeur, might arrest his attention and put him in a train of thinking; but they would only fill his mind with confused and grand conceptions of the design of the architect.— When, on some future day, if another person should pass by and see the building completed—see those scattered arches, columns, decorations, and every other manufacture, assuming a proper place in the edifice, and forming a beautiful and compact design—how differently would he be affected? We can easily imagine how differently the architect would be viewed by them.

So precisely is the analogy between God and his creatures. They, finite in their intelligence, with capacities restricted to what they see and hear, handle and feel; and created thus to understand perfectly nothing but what is easy and familiar to their senses, want an infinite mind to see plainly into his design in the creation of the world and its different parts; and hence, not resigned to a wise ignorance in some things, they substitute in the room of it a wisdom of the world, which is foolishness unto God; or, as it is termed by a distinguished assistant, who was skilled in all the learning of Greece, "a philosophy falsely so called."

And hence the origin of atheism; hence the origin of heresy; hence the origin of all error. The pride of knowledge is a source of deadly evil to the world. It was the first cause of Adam's transgression, and of Adam's apostasy. It was the ruin of the infidel philosopher Voltaire; it converted his dying bed into a venomous nest of scorpions. And it has thickened until the heavens, alas! have become blackened with the dark cloud of mistakes for infidelity, who have stood forth in every age as the bold champions to defend their corrupt systems of philosophy.

But why does the infidel storm? We never denied—we never doubted—that there are incomprehensible mysteries in nature and in the arcana of Providence.
Far from it. We see the whole creation, wherever we turn an eye, stored with wonders, like a vast museum replenished with natural curiosities, for our entertainment and religious adoration. For example, turn to astronomy, and what can baffle our reasons more than to offer a probable conjecture how the sun is fed by such a prodigious mass of fire, that he constantly supplies with vivifying heat and light all the planets that are revolving around him with an inconceivable velocity and the uttermost harmony.

Look at the moon—look at the eighty millions of stars. Let the philosopher conduct you into the secret cabinets of nature, and unlock her phenomena to the astonished senses, and what can we know of them more than that they are wonders. Like the magnificent arches, columns, ornaments and workmanship of the temple, which we have supposed above for the illustration of our subject, we can only form vague and indeterminate ideas of them; and they are the wonderful pillars of that mighty temple in which the glorious architect himself resides who built it, and whose presence fills all space, pervades every substance, and is extended to all duration!

No doubt there are great difficulties involved both in creation and providence; but these are wisely concealed from us—yes, the very knowledge of them might render us for ever miserable. Notwithstanding vain man would be wise against the wisdom of his Creator.

We believe it can be easily and satisfactorily demonstrated that man differ-ently constructed, and formed with a more widely extended knowledge than he at present possesses, would have been born a child of misery, and not a candidate for bliss. Unshowered into existence, as he grew up, he would have fallen a prey to ten thousand cares and harrowing reflections. He would have been a pitiable stranger to our gloom of joy, and as long as he lived never enjoyed a moment's peace.

Most thou ask how? Then graft him, like his Creator, an unbounded range in expansion—to travel in an instant beyond those fixed stars, and see how these new systems of worlds, rising in handsome progress above each other, are formed; and with this incommunicable attribute, from the nature of things, he would hereditarily possess an attribute to be present in all duration; and grant him this presence in pieces into futurity, to have a knowledge of the events buried in its tomb, of all that most deeply concern ed him to know, and of the period of his own dissolution, with no absolute power to control these events; and we believe no measure more infallibly certain could be adopted by the Supreme Being to drive his miserable creatures to absolute despair and into profound destruction.

And what frail man, in the possession of his reason and senses, will now cavil against this dispensation of things; and I may triumphantly ask, in this place, does not see the merciful hand of Him "who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," and who chooses rather to hide himself from his frail creatures than, by too full a revelation of himself in his works, render them absolutely and deplorably miserable.

We may, therefore, safely reason that the wisdom and goodness of Divine Providence may be successfully vindicated upon these principles from the wretched cavillings of philosophizing men against them; and if we may form any judgment of the whole by any of its parts, we may apply the same reasoning to all his other works, though we understand them not, and conclude that the same divine wisdom and benevolence presides over them as these.

And thus we shall see that the holy psalmist of Israel to his devout ejaculation, "How manifold are thy works, O Lord! in wisdom hast thou made them all!" does not fail in his CXIX. psalm to add the unqualified declaration, "That the Lord is good to all, and his tender mercies are over all his works." These are views of the benevolence and wisdom of the divine nature which we may borrow from natural religion, and have only been republished by God under more solemn and commanding sanctions of a revelation, as incontestable in its evidences as it is magnificent in its promises and splendid in its prospects of reward.

Now allow me, in my concluding remarks, to ask, is it any part of wisdom, or the exercise of that reason which God has endowed us with, for the creature at any time to reply against his Creator?— for dust and ashes to say unto him who "made us of clay and formed us men," "What doest thou?"—for finite man to cavil against his infinite maker? No—we should cry in time—Great and marvellous are thy works. Lord God Almighty—just and true are thy ways, thou King of Saints; and, as the least of all his saints, live in humble hope to cry in Heaven when, with our naked eyes, we shall see him as he is, Holy, holy, holy Lord God Almighty: Heaven and Earth are full of the majesty of thy glory! Z.

From the N. York Daily Advertiser.

A work has recently appeared, which has been ascribed to Sir Robert Wilson, portraying the form, dimensions and power of Russia, and representing her as a much more fearful and menacing anti-agonist to England, than was Bonaparte at the zenith of his influence and glory.
"It seems to be necessary," says a writer, quoted in the Courier, "that Europe should be acquainted with her danger." Russia is the power which is desirous of assuming the high and dictatorial attitude of France under the tyranny of Bonaparte.
Sir Robert says that Russia, "not content with an establishment of above eighty sail of the line in the ports of Archangel, Crostadi, Revel, Sevastopol and Cherson, is building, with increased activity, the heaviest line of battle ships." And to elucidate the policy of the marriage connection with Holland, he observes, "that to Russia, Holland was a sette du pont, or advanced work, which aided France, and which aided the control over Prussia—Holland being a maritime state, and Russia having the guardianship of her marine." The marriage connection with Bavaria is also represented as an artful step of aspiring ambition. The population of the empire is estimated at forty-two millions. Her military power, resources and attitude are then delineated. "The fact is that Russia, after having thirty thousand men of appropriate force, with artillery, etc., in Finland, eighty thousand on the frontier of Galicia, sixty thousand in Mol-davia, thirty thousand on the frontier of Armenia as many in Persia, and leaving a reserve of one hundred thousand to sustain these armies, possesses still a disposable force of two hundred thousand infantry, eighty thousand cavalry, and one thousand two hundred guns—better horses for service than any cavalry or artillery in the world, an army with which no other can march, starve or suffer physical privations and natural inconveniences. She has moreover a population equal to the needed supply—while no other power in Europe can raise, equip, or maintain their forces with such disdain of the price of blood." "Both quarters of the globe," continues he, "are overshadowed by the mass of six hundred and forty thousand men, which an establishment of one million two hundred thousand ranges in order of battle, exclusive of militia, Tartar cavalry, etc., etc." Sir Robert represents her as having nearly prostrated Persia, "absorbing the Persian provinces of Donghesian and Suyvan, raised a pillar of her empire at the mouth of the river Kur, and stipulated that the Russian flag alone shall sweep the Caspian." Upon the whole, the portrait he has drawn is truly a Colossus.— John Bull will again be wide awake to the tempets which once more threaten to drive the "fast anchored Isle" from her moorings.

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY, MARCH 6 1812.
FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASH-INGTON.

Thursday, March 5, 1812.

In my last report to you, of the proceedings of the house on the Expiration Bill, I announced to you the death of that measure: and well I might; for not only had its head been chopped off, by the cutting out of the first section, but some of the new attempts to keep it alive, by Talliaroan substitutes, had completely failed. Arguing, therefore, from experience of what used to be the legislative rule, I concluded the whole was defunct, and I earnestly protested against the appearance of its peributed spirit any more in the house.—But yesterday, there it stood again, like Barquo in the play, grinning and pointing to its wounds.

"The times have been,
That when the brains were out, the man would die
And there an end; but now they rise again,
With twenty mortal murders on their crowns,
And push us from our stools. This is most strange."

In a word, that substitute proposed by Mr. Robertson, which I detailed to you in my last letter on this subject, was again brought up yesterday, and consumed many good hours of the time which is now allowed on all hands to be insufficient for the discharge of the duties of congress during this session. A variety of amendments, chiefly verbal, were proposed—some of them successfully, and some not—and then came the question on adopting the substitute—which you will observe was then all that could be called the bill—and being taken by ayes and noes, passed by 93 ayes to 61 noes.
On this occasion, Mr. Williams of N. C. who has had the honor to oppose the bill from the outset, moved a provision that no man taking the benefit of the act should ever be permitted to resume his citizenship: which motion was negatived.
Here then we see that the decapitated bill, patched up with a substitute tail instead of its natural head, was enacted by a large majority. Could heart of man, then, believe that after the expenditure of so much time, and such a formal enactment, in spirit, of this strange law, it would at last be rejected? Can you believe it, reader of common sense? You will say no. Yet, so it was—positively bona fide rejected. So much for complaints of want of time to do the business of the session.

The Georgia claim bill is in a very bad way; for a motion to postpone it indefinitely was yesterday negatived.

THE PIRATE AGAIN.

We extract the following, in addition to what we have heretofore published in relation to this vessel, from the Baltimore Telegraph and Federal Republic-can:—

Capt. Mitchell, the master of the practical schooner mentioned above, came to this city last Friday evening, (leaving his crew and officers in a sloop which put into Curtis' creek) and was immediately arrested by a very vigilant magistrate Samuel Cole, Esq. and committed to jail for further examination. On Sunday afternoon the sloop arrived with the armament, crew and officers of the schooner.
The officers were committed to prison by the storesaid magistrate, and the sloop taken possession of by Capt. Beard of the Baltimore revenue cutter. Many circumstances have transpired to strengthen the belief, that the schooner was fitted out for piratical purposes. It has been stated by some of the crew that they remained in the Chesapeake for the purpose of intercepting a schooner bound down from Baltimore to intercept a brig fitted out in Alexandria for the East Indies with specie. If these rumors be true, it really is a fortunate circumstance that these privateersmen have been thus early arrested in their career. The following is a copy of Capt. Mitchell's instructions (verbatim):—

"Article of agreement and of instructions to Capt. J. L. Mitchell, his officers and crew, on board the schooner Harriot, of Norfolk, whereof the said Mitchell is at present master, and bound on a cruise as a patriot privateer under a lawful Bu-renos Arrean commission against the old Spanish dominions, etc. etc. To take and make good prizes of Spanish property that they may meet with on land or sea, and not to infringe on any other government without necessity forces the same, and then to make proper acknowledgment for so doing—the property taken to be divided in the following manner, that is to say one half to the owner, or owners of the privateer, fourteen shares to captain Mitchell, eight shares to his first officer, seven shares to his second officer, and so on in proportion—the sailors each two shares. If cash taken, to be divided on board as above. The owner's share held safe until a favorable opportunity to ship it home to Philadelphia, or New York, or Baltimore, or Norfolk, with letters, &c. to be directed to the care of Wm. Seymour, Norfolk, According to the order of the said Mitchell, and Briscoe & Partridge, in Baltimore, and Buckley & Abbott, in New-York. Should you get a valuable prize you will accompany her off the Capes of Delaware or Virginia, send a letter ashore by a pilot boat, making them declare secrecy on the occasion, and the business shall be immediately attended to by me or my friends, as above named, at the different places of their residence. If you have cash on board, keep it until you hear from me or my friend, who will attend to its safe conveyance on shore. Should you take a vessel that suits better for a privateer, make a change, and keep the Harriot as a tender, or let her go for herself. The cruise will continue as long as may be suit on all sides—say not longer than six months—the owner not to be at any more cost or expenses after leaving this port.

You will be particular to write me to Wilmington, in the state of Delaware, if you have an opportunity after you get off the W. I. or on your cruising ground, giving some account of your cruise, &c.
Wishing you health and good luck, safe return, &c. I remain yours.

"CHARLES L. BEASLY, Owner.
Feb 14, 1812.
Should you fall in with the Congress frigate U. S. in your cruise and she is like to detain you, let my friend Caesar A. Rodney, one of our commissioners on board, see your instructions, and inform him she is on a fair cruise, that I am interested, etc.

"N. B. Should Mr. Rodney not be on board, Doctor Baldwin, the surgeon on board, is also my particular friend."

COMMUNICATION.

CIRCUS—LITTLE STAMP.

In patronising a performer, we are influenced by a zeal to reward acknowledged ability, or to encourage the exertions of individuals, who, if not of the first class, yet strive hard to become so.
We have often remarked the zeal with which Little Stamp has applied himself to his arduous duty, and as often have ac-knowledgeed within ourselves the justness of his pretensions to public favor. As a clown, he is but a practitioner; as an equestrian, he is of the first order—yet to fill a vacancy in the company, he has taken upon himself the office of the former with no experience, and without the aid of even an uncouth visage in his favor!!
How he has succeeded we are called upon this night to determine; and by a proper encouragement thus auspiciously bestowed upon the first term of his novitiate, we may be able, on the return of another season, to welcome him as a humorous of the first grade—
"With so much mirth and wit and spleen about him,
"There'll be no living with him or without him." X. Y. Z.

From the New-York Gazette.

The interesting commercial correspondence, which has from time to time, taken place between Mr. Beasly, the American Consul at Havre, and the Chamber of commerce of that place, has been regularly transmitted by Mr. B. to the editors of the New-York Gazette, and promptly published. They have now the pleasure of laying before their readers a further proof of this gentleman's exertions, in behalf of the commerce of his country, together with a set of spirited resolutions of the American masters of vessels in that port on the 17th of December last.

American Consulate, }
Havre, Dec. 24. 1817.
Messrs. Lang, Turner & Co. will have the goodness to publish the Resolutions herewith transmitted in compliance with the wish of the meeting.

Havre, Dec. 1, 1817.
To the President and Members of the Chamber of Commerce, Havre.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to enclose herewith an extract from a printed paper, purporting to be the Tariff of Brokerage, chargeable on French and Foreign vessels, from and after the first January 1817;— and to request the favor of you to inform me for the information of my countrymen, trading to Havre, whether this is really the Tariff fixed by law. At the same time I beg leave to state, that according to information I have derived from undoubted authority, the Brokers have been in the constant practice of demanding, and in most instances receiving 150s. per ton in lieu of the rate fixed by said Tariff.

Entered upon the duties of my office the 25th June last, and down to the 1st of October last, four American vessels reported at this office. (Annex 11-306) the Brokerage on which according to the Tariff would be about 6000s. but at the rate exacted, about 17,000s. making a difference of 11,000s. in the course of three months and five days—

The same quantity of French tonnage would be chargeable with about 2800s., taking always the above tariff as the one fixed by law. And if I am rightly informed as to the rate exacted and paid, the American navigation is taxed in the item of Brokerage alone about 20,000s. a year more than any other nation. According to which rule, it is actually paying 68,000s. per annum for a service which the French navigation pays 11-2000s. for.—This is in itself a serious charge. I say nothing of the 40 per cent difference in the item of pilotage, which I am informed is made.

I shall not at present trouble you with all the observations which these subjects suggest.

It must be obvious to you, if such things do exist, that there is just ground of dissatisfaction, and that they will when known tend greatly to injure the commerce of this place with the U States.— Of the number of Masters of American vessels who have entered this port since my residence here, there is scarcely one who has not complained of this heavy charge, and the little service rendered for it, amounting in general to more than the merchant's commission on the freight —sometimes double; and is the more sensibly felt at a time when freights are so low that the strictest economy is absolutely necessary.

I have only to express my regret that I did not address you earlier on a subject so interesting to my countrymen, and perhaps scarcely less so to the commerce of Havre.

I have the honor to be with great respect gentlemen, your most obedient and humble servant,
Signed, R. G. BEASLY.

Havre, 15 Dec. 1817.

Gentlemen—I had the honor of addressing you the 1st inst. in relation to Brokerage. The subject is interesting to American citizens trading to Havre, and I was induced to hope would have had your early consideration, or that you would not have withheld the information requested in regard to the Tariff, to which I now beg leave to call your attention.
I am, with perfect respect, gentlemen, your most obedient humble servant.
Signed, R. G. BEASLY.

At a meeting of Masters of American Vessels, held on Monday evening, 22d December, at the Hotel des Indes, Havre, for the purpose of taking into consideration the charge exacted by the Brokers, for entering and clearing vessels arriving at this port from the United States,

PRESENT.
Cap. Robt. B. Brown, of brig Shakespear, Benoni Cooke, of brig Eagle, Thomas P. Brown, of brig Patriot, Jacob Stevens, Jr. of brig Hesper, J. Fellows, of ship Gen. Hamilton, Henry Robinson, of ship Emily, Captain Robt. P. Brown of the Shakespear, was called to the Chair, and Captain Joseph Fellows of the ship General Hamilton, was appointed Secretary.

The President stated to the meeting that he had seen copies of two letters under date of the 1st and 15th December inst. addressed by Mr. Beasly, American Consul to the Chamber of Commerce of this city, together with an extract from the Tariff of Brokerage, printed for the regulation of the commerce of this place, in which an explanation is requested for the difference between the charge of 1150 francs per ton made by the Brokers, and the charge authorized by the said Tariff, and that he had been informed that no answer had been given to either letter by the Chamber, upon which it was,

Resolved unanimously, That as the Chamber of Commerce have declined making any reply to the above letters, or giving any explanation on the subject, it is fair to presume, that there is no justifiable grounds to support it.

Resolved unanimously, That it is expedient for all American Masters trading to this port, to adopt the most effectual measures to avoid the payment of this illegal charge exacted by the Brokers, which they are informed is thirty centimes per ton more than is paid by any other nation.

Resolved unanimously, That as repeated efforts have been made by different Masters to avoid the payment of a charge so disproportionate to the service rendered for it, without success, that it is expedient to appeal to the laws of the Country for a redress of the above grievances, as the most effectual, if not the only means of accomplishing it.

Resolved unanimously, That this meeting shall instruct their different committees to resist the payment of 1. 30s. per ton, heretofore imposed on American vessels, and shall have their power of Attorney with them to resist on their behalf.

Resolved unanimously, That in case only one trial should take place, we will each bear a proportion of the expenses thereof, and that we will leave instructions with our different consignees accordingly.

Resolved unanimously, That we will use our best exertions to induce the Masters of American vessels coming to this Port to sanction the object of this meeting.

Resolved unanimously, That the President of this meeting do wait on Mr. Beasly, with a copy of these resolutions, & with the request that he will use his exertions to have the object of them carried into effect, and that he will cause time to be published in the different Journals of the United States, for the information of our countrymen.

Fan-Sash Making. METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expense in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town. JAMES T. HOLLAND. February 19

prietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the

of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.
Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills.
Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills" and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, proprietor." The pills should be offered for sale without said label on them: the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water.
For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Hawson's Genuine Rich Ointment.

agreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37 1/2 cents a box.

machic Bitters.

stant relief in that distressing complaint.

d. H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr.
David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthum & Co. and Wm thaniel Jewett.

James Kennedy & Son,
RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,
No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDI-CINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various & dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is ferocious or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.
Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terres or large round worm; the Ascari-des or small maw-worm; the Cucurbi-tine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tania or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.
Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face becomes flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken, by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

children are liable. The Elixir is per-that no difficulty arises in taking it.
